Dear Cholla District Residents,

Glendale's Planning Division is holding a neighborhood meeting to discuss a proposed amendment in the zoning ordinance that would permit chickens in all of the city's single-family zoning districts. Your input is welcomed and encouraged. The neighborhood meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, August 17, at 6 p.m. in the Council Chambers located at Glendale City Hall, 5850 W. Glendale Avenue.

Always feel free to contact me with your questions or concerns. I value your input and opinion.

Best Regards,

Lauren Tolmachoff
Glendale City Council, Cholla District

Glendale Voters Urged To Prepare Now For Primary Election. The City of Glendale reminds residents that the August 30 primary is approaching fast and Glendale voters will find four races and a proposition on their primary ballot.

For mayor, the race is between Mark Burdick and Jerry Weiers. For City Council, Ray Malnar is on the ballot for the Sahuaro District, Ian Hugh is on the ballot for the Cactus District and for the Yucca District voters will choose between Samuel Chavira and Joyce Clark. Proposition 497 is the ratification of Glendale's general plan "Envision Glendale 2040" and it is also on the ballot.

Glendale Police Department Opening

Recruitment. The Glendale Police Department is seeking qualified candidates for the positions of Police Officer Recruit and Police Officer Lateral. Applications for Police Officer Recruit will be accepted beginning Monday, August 29th at 12:00 am and closing on Sunday, September 18th, 2016 at 11:59 pm.

The Glendale Police Department expects to fill 8 positions for Police Officer. Candidates interested in becoming Police Officers with the Glendale Police Department are encouraged to talk to one of our recruiters at the Glendale Police Department. Information, including application material, can be found at www.glendaleaz.com/policejobs. Follow us on Twitter: @GlendaleAZPD and @GPDrecruitment.

I would like to thank Desert Sky Middle School for inviting the City of Glendale to participate in the school's Back to School Day. I am grateful for our educators, administrators, and staff for the work they do in educating the young people of our city.

The Glendale Community Services Department Is Seeking Public Input On Facility Fees.

The Glendale Community Services Department is conducting a parks, recreation, and library review to evaluate public fees associated with special activities, sports programs, and class offerings, in addition to park, ramada, and room or facility rentals at city parks, recreation centers, and libraries. The study is being conducted as part of the city's ongoing efforts to effectively deliver quality recreation and leisure opportunities to Glendale residents, and will include a comparison of fees in neighboring jurisdictions, an assessment of market competitiveness, and a forecasting of Glendale's future needs. A public meeting will be held at the Foothills Recreation & Aquatic Center on September 1st from 5-7 pm.

Serve On A Glendale Board or Commission!

The City of Glendale's Boards and Commissions assist the City Council in making important policy decisions that impact our community. These citizen advisory groups research, study, and discuss specific issues with both short and long-term implications, and then forward their recommendations to the City Council. I encourage you to submit an application for a Board or Commission.

For more information, please contact Kriss Carneal at 623-930-2814 or email her at carneal@glendaleaz.com.
